Farming Life in Another World is a lighthearted and heartwarming isekai series that follows the adventures of Hiraku Machio, a young man who is transported to another world and must learn to adapt to his new farming life. The series is written by Kinosuke Naito and illustrated by Yasumo. It has been published in Japan since 2016 and has been adapted into an anime series that aired in 2018.

Story

Hiraku Machio is a 30-year-old office worker who is transported to another world while on his way home from work. He awakens in a field and is greeted by a beautiful woman named Ru. Ru explains that she is the goddess of this world and that she brought Hiraku here to help save it. Hiraku is initially reluctant, but he eventually agrees to help Ru after learning that the world is facing a dire threat.

Hiraku and Ru travel to the nearby village of Alvan, where Hiraku is given a farm to work on. Hiraku quickly learns that farming is not as easy as it looks, but he is determined to succeed. With the help of Ru and the other villagers, Hiraku gradually begins to get the hang of farming. He also makes friends with the other villagers, including the shy blacksmith, Tifana, and the energetic hunter, Ruri.

As Hiraku settles into his new life, he begins to discover more about the world he has been transported to. He learns that the world is divided into two continents, the Old Continent and the New Continent. The Old Continent is home to humans and other familiar creatures, while the New Continent is home to more dangerous creatures. Hiraku also learns that there is a powerful demon king who is threatening to destroy the world.

Hiraku and the other villagers must work together to defeat the demon king and save the world. Along the way, they will face many challenges, but they will also discover the true meaning of friendship, love, and family.
