Hansel and Gretel is a beloved fairytale that has been told and retold for centuries. The story of two children who are abandoned in the woods by their parents and who find a way to outsmart a wicked witch has captivated generations of children and adults alike.

Oberon Modern Plays' adaptation of Hansel and Gretel brings the classic fairytale to life in a fresh and enchanting way. With stunning visuals, captivating performances, and a heartwarming story, this play is a must-see for audiences of all ages.

A Visual Feast

One of the things that makes Oberon Modern Plays' Hansel and Gretel so special is its stunning visuals. The play is set in a beautiful forest, complete with towering trees, lush green grass, and babbling brooks. The set design is so realistic that you can almost smell the pine needles and feel the warm sun on your skin.

The costumes are also exquisite. Hansel and Gretel are dressed in simple peasant clothes, but they are still incredibly cute and charming. The witch is a sight to behold, with her green skin, crooked nose, and cackling laugh. Her lair is a dark and eerie place, full of bubbling cauldrons and poisonous plants.

Captivating Performances

The performances in Oberon Modern Plays' Hansel and Gretel are top-notch. The young actors who play Hansel and Gretel are incredibly talented. They bring the characters to life with their charm, wit, and intelligence. The witch is played by a veteran actress who gives a tour-de-force performance. She is both terrifying and hilarious, and she will have you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

A Heartwarming Story

At its core, Hansel and Gretel is a story about the power of love and family. Hansel and Gretel are two siblings who are very close to each other. They support each other through thick and thin, and they never give up on each other. Their love for each other helps them to overcome all obstacles, including the wicked witch.

Oberon Modern Plays' adaptation of Hansel and Gretel is a heartwarming story that will appeal to audiences of all ages. It is a story about the power of love, family, and the human spirit. It is a story that will stay with you long after you leave the theatre.
