Human trafficking is a serious problem in Texas. In 2020, the state had the third-highest number of human trafficking cases in the nation. To combat this growing problem, the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) created Mission Her Justice Team 52 (MHJT 52) in 2015.

MHJT 52 is a specialized unit of DPS that investigates and combats human trafficking in Texas. The team is made up of law enforcement officers, analysts, and victim advocates who work together to identify, rescue, and support victims of trafficking.

Since its inception, MHJT 52 has made significant progress in combating human trafficking in Texas. The team has conducted hundreds of investigations, rescued hundreds of victims, and arrested hundreds of traffickers.

One of MHJT 52's most notable successes was the rescue of 11 victims of sex trafficking in 2017. The victims were all young women who had been forced to work in a massage parlor in Houston. MHJT 52 worked with local law enforcement to raid the massage parlor and rescue the victims. The traffickers were arrested and charged with multiple felonies.

MHJT 52 is also committed to providing support to victims of human trafficking. The team works with a variety of victim service providers to provide victims with the resources they need to rebuild their lives.

If you or someone you know is a victim of human trafficking, there are resources available to help. The National Human Trafficking Hotline can be reached at 1-888-373-7888. You can also get help online at the hotline's website: <https://humantraffickinghotline.org>.

How to Get Involved

There are a number of ways to get involved in the fight against human trafficking. Here are a few ideas:

- Volunteer with a local victim service provider.
- Donate to organizations that are working to combat human trafficking.

- Educate yourself about human trafficking and the signs of exploitation.
- Report any suspected cases of human trafficking to the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Together, we can make a difference in the fight against human trafficking.
