Dh'fhan mo litir ris a' phosta, oidhche Shathairne, oidhche Dhòmhaich, ràinig i Dùn Èideann, chaidh a fosgladh, sheas i greiseag air a' phlàna.

Ach tha mo chridhe fhathast mar am bogsa-litrichean tron oidhche – crò-dhearg, do-fhaicsinreach, làn fròs nach gabh fibhrigeadh.

My card waited for the postman.
Saturday night, Sunday night,
arrived in Edinburgh, was opened,
stood a while on the piano.

But my heart is still like the pillar-box through the night –
unseen, red-rav,
full of undeliverable messages.
